Re: In re European Gov't Bonds Antitrust Litig., No. 19-cv-2601 (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Marrero:

We write on behalf of Plaintiffs in the above-captioned matter.

Pursuant to Rule II.H of Your Honor's Individual Practices, we respectfully request leave to file under seal Plaintiffs' response to the June 15, 2023 letter of Coöperatieve Rabobank U.A., Rabo Securities USA, Inc., Deutsche Bank AG, and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. (the "Response Letter"). An unredacted version of the Response Letter has been filed electronically under seal, and a redacted version of the Response Letter and this letter have been filed on the public docket for this case.

Plaintiffs seek to redact those portions of the Response Letter that describe the substance of documents designated by settling defendant Natixis, S.A. ("Natixis") as Highly Confidential pursuant to the Stipulation and Protective Order so ordered by the Court on September 16, 2022 (ECF No. 291) and that are subject to the terms of an Agreement Concerning Confidentiality and Cooperation Processes between Plaintiffs and Natixis. Natixis asserts that sealing is required because the documents described in the redacted portions of the Response Letter have been designated as Highly Confidential, as they contain information that Natixis reasonably believes the unauthorized disclosure of which would create a substantial risk of competitive, commercial, or financial harm to Natixis or its personnel, clients, or customers. In addition, Natixis asserts that such documents are protected from disclosure under foreign law. Natixis does not oppose Plaintiffs' request.

Plaintiffs are available at the Court's convenience to discuss this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Request GRANTED.	The Court hereby grants Plaintiffs leave to file under seal their unredacted letter in response to Rabobank and Deutsche Bank's June 15, 2023 letter.
SO ORDERED.
